

Erie Business Center-New Castle in New Castle

New Castle, PA

Overview

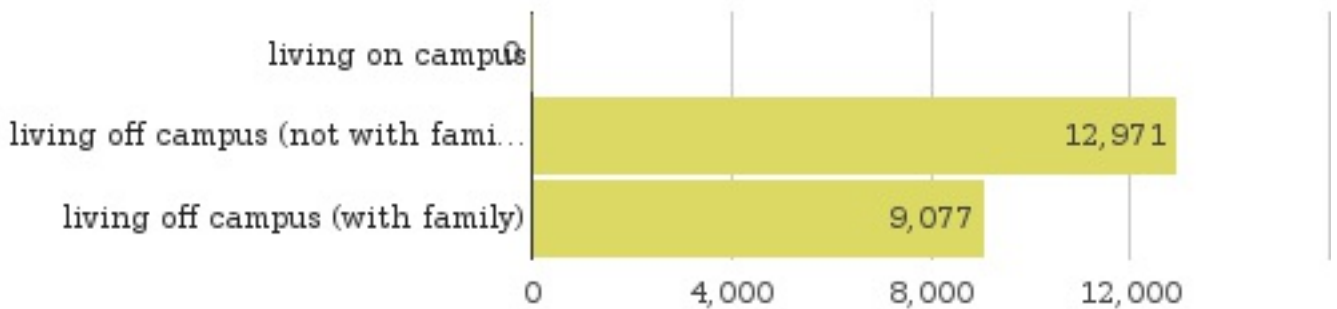

Erie Business Center-New Castle offers 45-degree programs. 24.4% are women, and 75.6% are men.

Finance

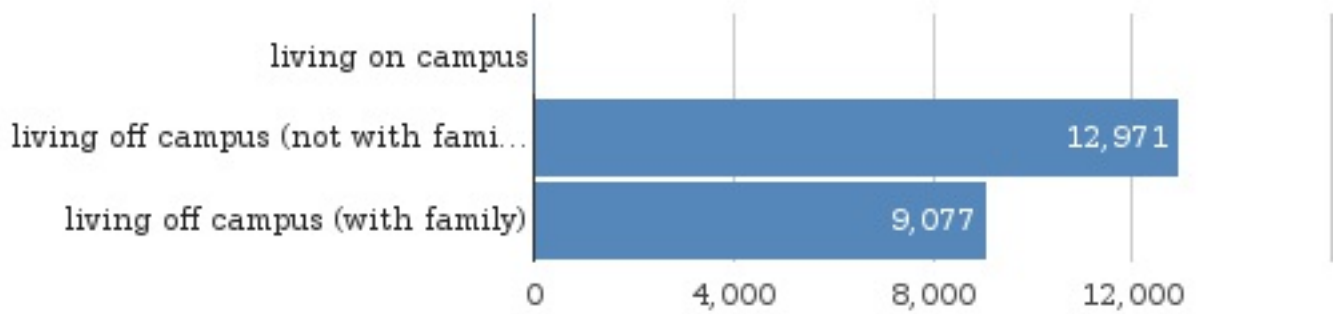

Charges:

- Typical room charge for academic year: -
- Typical board charge for academic year: -
- Combined charge for room and board: -

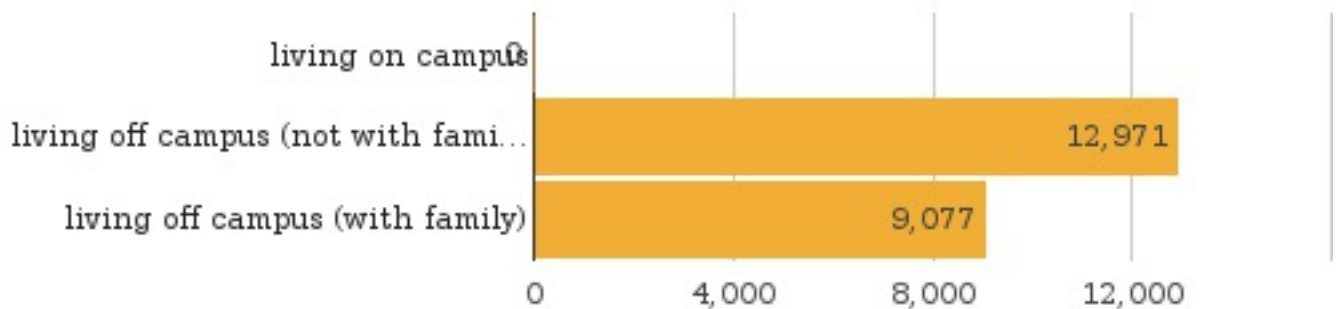

In-district students

In-state students

Out-of-state students

Students services

Career

- ✓ Academic/career counseling service
- ✓ Employment services for students

Erie Business Center-New Castle's academic and career counseling offices offer advising, instructing and assisting in the career action plan creation, assist with resumes, essays, cover letters and applications. They help students explore opportunities and careers, find jobs, define their career fit and path and find internships, fellowships or partnerships. Academic counseling offices provide mentoring and assistance, peer tutoring and study groups.

Erie Business Center-New Castle provides an employment services too.

Living & meal

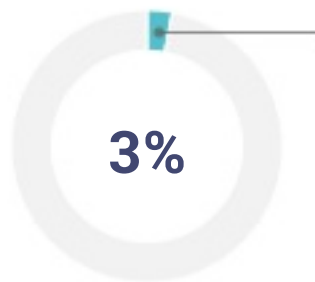

- ✘ Full-time, first-time degree/certificate-seeking students required to live on campus
- ✘ Institution provide on-campus housing
- ✘ Institution provides board or meal plan

Veteran Services Available

- ✓ Services and programs are not available to veterans, military servicemembers, or their families

Disability services

diagram

- ✓ Does not offer distance education opportunities

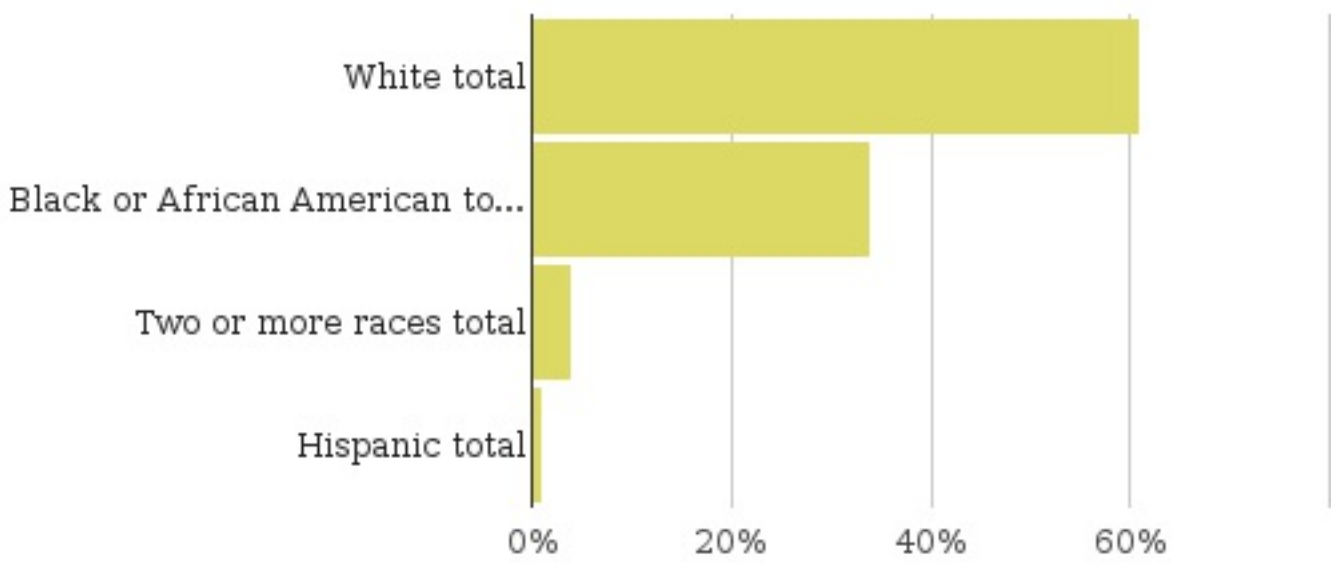

Percent indicator of undergraduates formally registered as students with disabilities

The percentage of undergraduate students formally registered as students with disabilities in Erie Business Center-New Castle is less than 3 percents. This parameter reflects the level of accessibility and suitability of the Erie Business Center-New Castle for students with disabilities. Disability services of the school provide resources for students requiring specific learning accommodations.

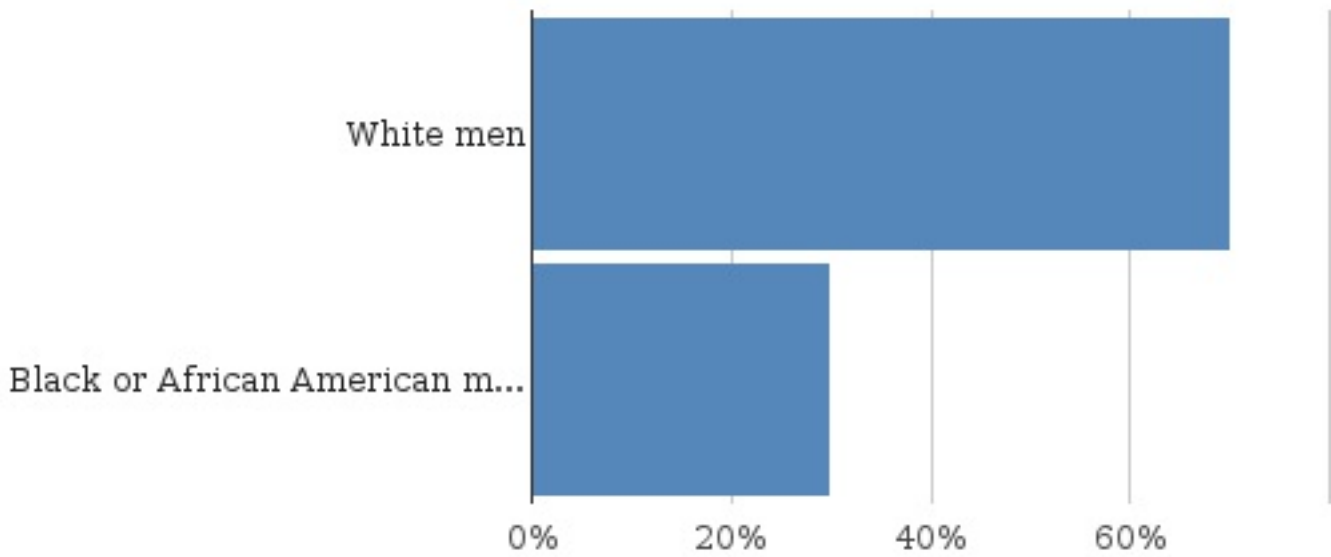

Student body

Race/ethnicity breakdown

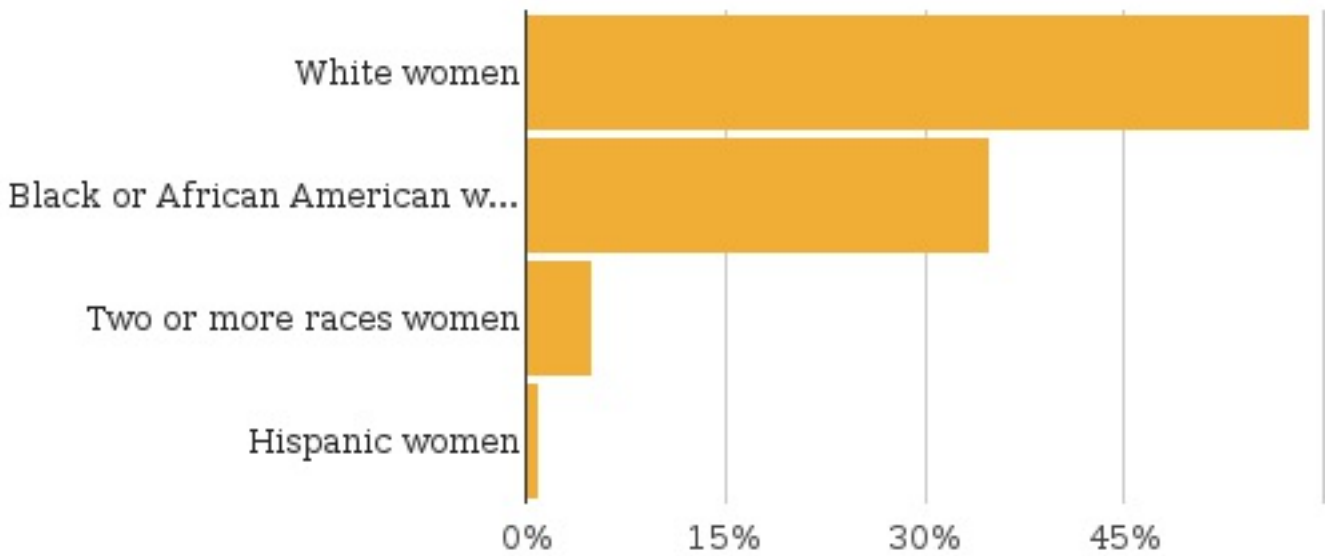

Total ethnicity

Men ethnicity

Women ethnicity

Academic Programs

Number of degree programs offered

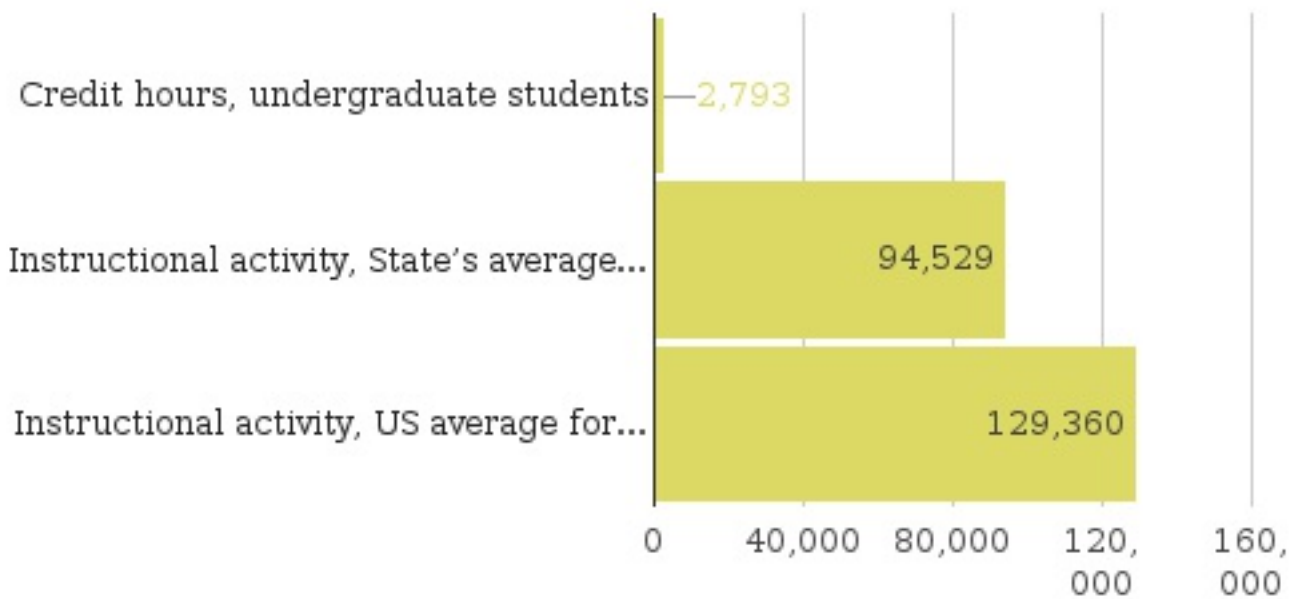

Erie Business Center-New Castle offers 45 programs in total: 33 are for Associate's degree and 12 are less than 1-year certificate programs.

This is one of the lowest number of programs in comparison with other 396 universities in Pennsylvania state. Erie Business Center-New Castle is one of the few institutions in Pennsylvania that offers an Associate's degree program.

Total credit/contact hours

Here you can find the data on instructional activity in measured in total credit and/or contact hours delivered by institutions during a 12-month period. Also we shown the Pennsylvania state average data to help you compare.

Erie Business Center-New Castle provides coursework for undergraduate students only.

In 2014-2015 academic year estimated full-time equivalent undergraduate enrollment was 93 students with 2793 credit hours for 12-month instructional activity period.

Location

Address: 170 Cascade Galleria

Place:

Religious affiliation: Not applicable

Calendar system: Trimester

General Phone Number: ☎ +7246589066

Institution is active in current year: 1

Institution's internet website address: eriebc.edu/newcastle

Financial aid office: -

Admissions office: -

Online application: -

Net price calculator: <http://www.eriebc.edu/newcastle>

Veterans and Military Service members tuition policies: <http://www.eriebc.edu/newcastle>

Student-Right-to-Know student athlete graduation rate: -