

Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey

Monterey, CA

Overview

Naval Postgraduate School offers 207-degree programs and 111 via distance education. 84% are women, and 16% are men. 8% percents of international students.

Students services

Career

- ✓ Academic/career counseling service
- ✗ Employment services for students

Academic and career counseling offices of the Naval Postgraduate School offer advising, instructing and assisting in the career action plan creation, assist with resumes, essays, cover letters and applications. They help students discover opportunities and careers, find jobs, define their career fit and path and find internships, fellowships or partnerships. Academic counseling offices offer mentoring and assistance, peer tutoring and study groups.

Naval Postgraduate School doesn't provide an employment services.

Living & meal

- ✗ Full-time, first-time degree/certificate-seeking students required to live on campus

✘ Institution provide on-campus housing

✘ Institution provides board or meal plan

Veteran Services Available

✓ Services and programs are not available to veterans, military servicemembers, or their families

Disability services

diagram

✓ Graduate programs or courses are offered via distance education

Percent indicator of undergraduates formally registered as students with disabilities

The percentage of undergraduate students formally registered as students with disabilities in Naval Postgraduate School is percents. This parameter reflects the level of accessibility and suitability of the Naval Postgraduate School for students with disabilities. Disability services of the educational institution offer resources for students requiring specific learning accommodations.

Student body

Number of international students

323

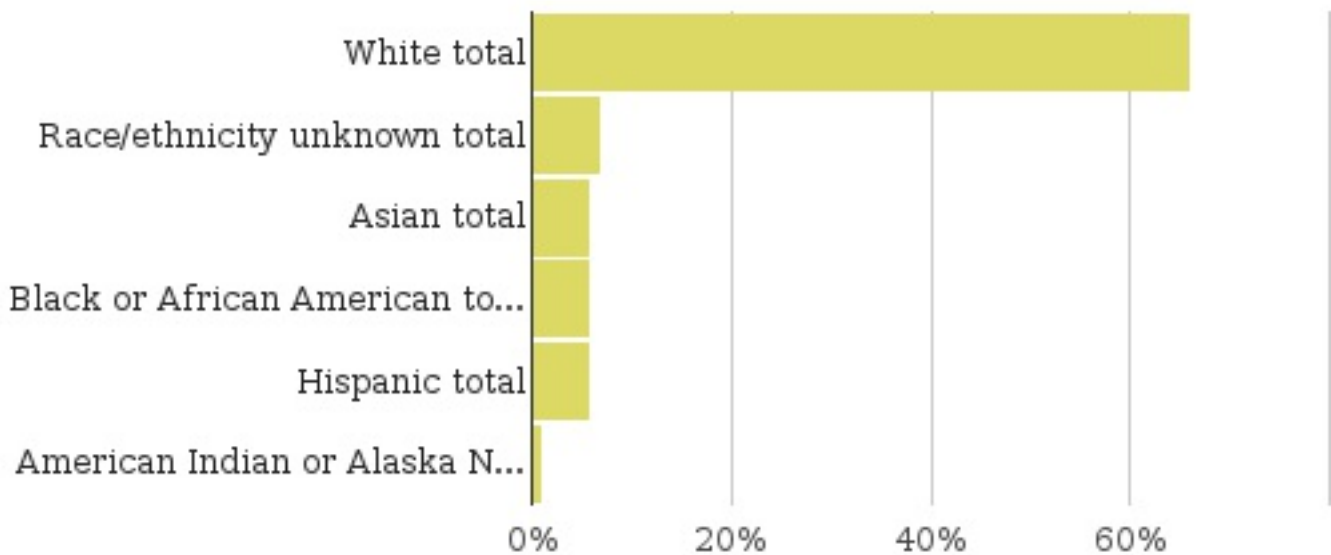

8%

Percent of international students

Race/ethnicity breakdown

Total ethnicity

Men ethnicity

Women ethnicity

Academic Programs

Number of degree programs offered

Naval Postgraduate School offers 207 programs in total: 93 are for Master's degree, 66 - for Postbaccalaureate certificate, 39 - for Doctor's degree-research/scholarship programs, and 9 are Post-master's certificate.

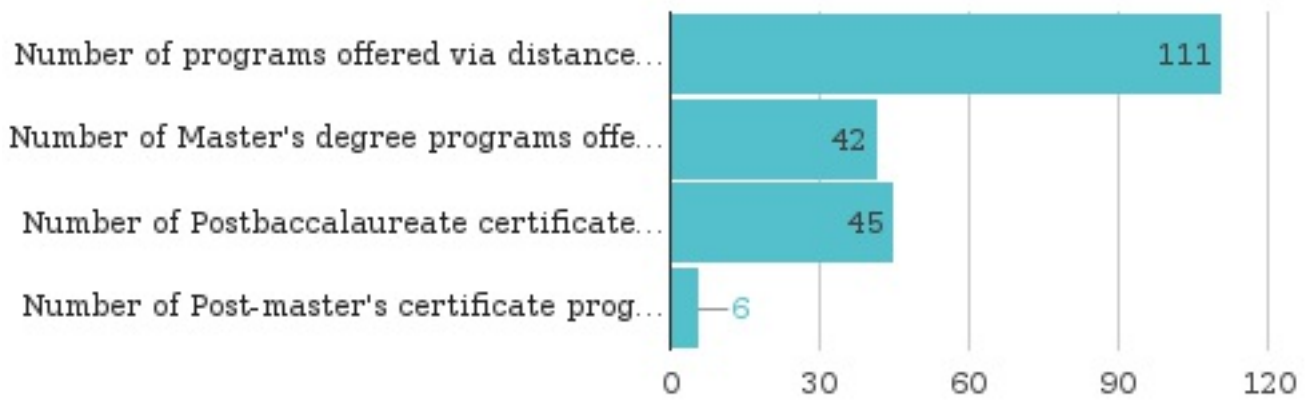

This is one of the lowest number of programs in comparison with other 753 universities in California state. Naval Postgraduate School is one of the few institutions in California that offers a Master's degree program.

Number of degree programs offered via distance education

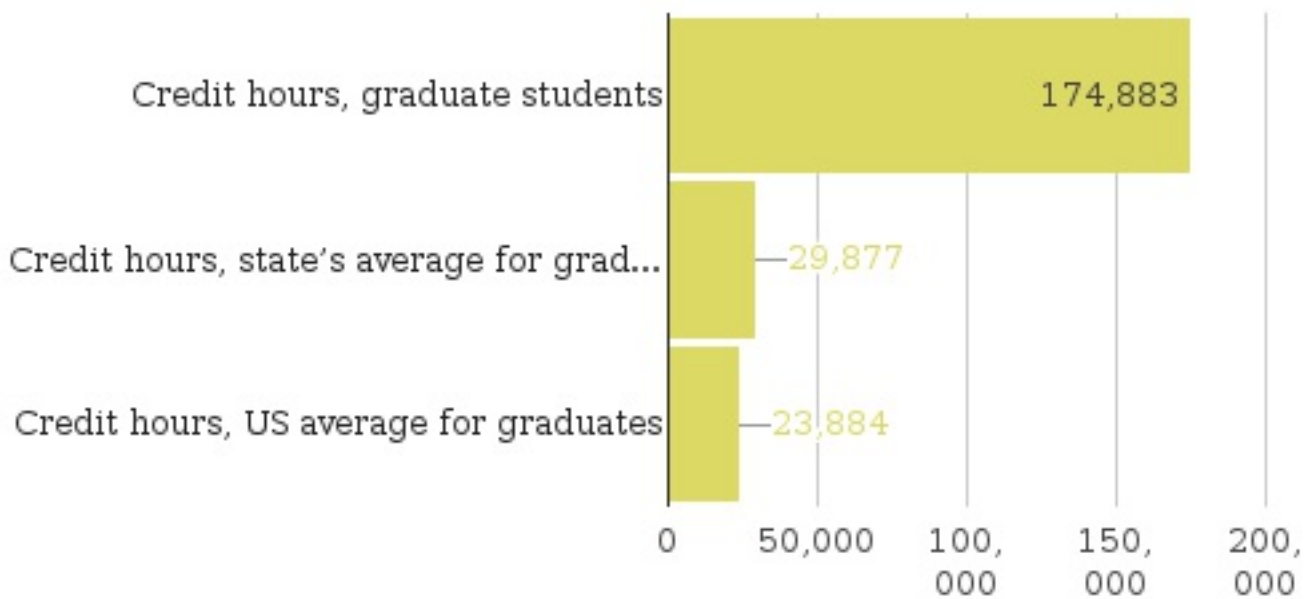

There are 111 distance education programs that are provided in the Naval Postgraduate School: 45 are for Postbaccalaureate certificate, 42 - for Master's degree, 18 - for Doctor's degree-research/scholarship programs and 6 are Post-master's certificate.

Note, that programs offered via distance education might be fully online as well as partially online and require on-campus meetings. So explore each program to make sure you can commit.

Total credit/contact hours

Here you can find the data on instructional activity in measured in total credit and/or contact hours delivered by institutions during a 12-month period. Also we shown the California state average data to help you compare.

Naval Postgraduate School provides coursework for graduate students only.

In 2014-2015 academic year estimated full-time equivalent. The enrollment for graduates was 2733 with 174883 credit hours.

Location

Address: 1 University Circle

Place:

Religious affiliation: Not applicable

Calendar system: Quarter

General Phone Number: ☎ +8316563277

Institution is active in current year: 1

Institution's internet website address: nps.edu

Financial aid office: -

Admissions office: <http://www.nps.edu/NewStudents/index.html>

Online application: -

Net price calculator: <http://www.nps.edu>

Veterans and Military Service members tuition policies: -

Student-Right-to-Know student athlete graduation rate: -